

ADDENDUM TO BOOK

ADDITIONAL ASPECT OF BRAVERY DURING THE TIME OF THE HOLOCAUST:

THE FIERCENESS TO SAVE ONE'S FAMILY

*Raymond Learsy's Mother Insists on Leaving Luxembourg in 1940, Bringing Her Family to America
Where She Receives a Perfunctory Nazi Letter of Property Seizure 976;
Leather, metal, canvas, paint, fabric and mixed media; 84 x 79 x 3 inches; 2019
© Linda Stein*

Sitti Israel (née Scheuer; name mistaken by Nazis for Lidi Sara) 1908-2001

Born: Bad Durkheim, Germany | During the Holocaust: Luxembourg

In 1940, a woman of means, living with her family in Luxembourg, had the foresight, bravery and wherewithall to insist upon fleeing Nazi persecution despite her husband and others trying to discourage her from leaving. Seldom, is the story told of this aspect of female heroism.